

Joint NPELRA/NYSPELRA Application

Membership in NPELRA/NYSPELRA is open to any person who is employed full time by any governmental or educational unit, agency or district with principal or subordinate responsibility of that jurisdiction's labor relations administration and activity.

Individuals who have auxiliary roles of participation in labor relations, such as attorneys and consultants who represent jurisdictions are also eligible. Annual dues are $200.00, or should your organization wish to enroll more than one individual, please inquire about an agency membership.

To join, simply complete the membership application below and mail along with check or payment voucher payable to the:

National Public Employer Labor Relations Associations

c/o John J. Kalinkewicz
15 Rum Cherry Road
Ballston Spa, NY 12020

Name _____
Title _____
Employer _____
Address _____
City _____
State _____ Zip _____
Phone () _____
Fax () _____
E-Mail _____
Reports to _____ Duties _____
Signature _____
Date _____

I _____, in accordance to the NYSPELRA Bylaws, Article III, Section 2, do hereby affirm and attest that I solely and exclusively engage in public sector employee relations in behalf of Management/Employers.

(Signature)

C/O John J. Kalinkewicz
15 Rum Cherry Road
Ballston Spa, NY 12020

WE REPRESENT MANAGEMENT SOLELY!

We are dedicated to serving the public interest in labor relations activities in the public sector.

We are labor management specialist.

Our professional Association is the

New York State
Public Employer
Labor Relations Association Inc.
Affiliated with NPELRA
C/O John J. Kalinkewicz

15 Rum Cherry Road
Ballston Spa, NY 12020
(518) 885-2225

The New York State Public Employers Labor Relations Association Inc. (NYSPELRA) was established to provide public employers in New York State with the same pool of support services which historically have been available to the labor organizations which service public sector unions. No individual management advocate can bring a particularly difficult labor relations problem into focus the way our collective resources can

NYSPELRA Benefits and Services

The key to better performance is better cooperation and communication within the profession. Your participation will not only benefit you, but other members of NYSPELRA as well. Current membership includes labor relations representatives from State and local government agencies, school districts, colleges and universities, and public authorities.

We encourage you to complete the application form today and join with your fellow labor relations professionals in an organization designed to enhance YOU through the profession ... and the profession through YOU.

Membership in NYSPELRA provides numerous benefits, programs and services which at this time include:

- Contact with labor relations professionals around New York State through a membership roster, listing names, addresses and telephone numbers of colleagues around the state.
- An annual professional conference devoted to public sector labor relations training and informational exchange.

- Regional luncheons devoted to discussing issues of local or topical concern.
- A management advocate in Albany expressing position, ideas and concerns on issues before the Legislature, and relaying information on prospective and enacted legislation.
- A liaison with other public employer organizations for the collective development and presentation of legislation.
- A regular newsletter, with recent developments and current issues of interest and concern.
- Periodic special interest publications on labor relations topics of interest.
- A clearing house for information on recent settlements in collective bargaining throughout the state.
- Information on current practicing arbitrators throughout the state.

The Primary benefit of membership in NYSPELRA is the discovery that problems which seem to defy solution or appear to be unique can be resolved through the Association's chief resources – your professional colleagues. NYSPELRA is affiliated with the National Public Employer Labor Relations Association (NPELRA). Therefore, you receive two memberships for the price of one.

The National Public Employer Labor Relations Association (NPELRA) The membership of NPELRA is composed of the leading management advocates in the country. Numerous major public employers throughout the country are represented by a member of NPELRA. This pool of expertise, experience and knowledge provides labor relations resources which are unparalleled by any other organization in the country.

What can NPELRA do for you?

As the leading public management employee relations organization in America today, NPELRA makes available the following services to you and your public jurisdiction.

- Internet access to member services(www.npelra.org)(www.nyspelra.org)
- A monthly professional newsletter with current information on developments in labor relations at the municipal, county, school, college, university, state and federal levels.
- Special papers, articles and briefs on key or technical labor relations issues.
- Periodic alerts on new judicial actions, legislative proposals or enactments and key arbitration and jurisdictional labor relations decisions impacting upon your public entity's labor relations programs.
- An annual national conference featuring the most extensive professional program available, planned and presented by leading public sector labor relations experts and devoted to the most current training and informational ideas available for both labor relations experts and novices.
- A detailed membership roster listing the names and addresses of all colleagues throughout the United State and Canada.
- Expert assistance to members when needed in an employee relations crisis.
- Legislative assistance and advocacy for public sector management employee relations issues.
- Expert witness testimony and practical legal argument in legislative hearings and amicus curiae in judicial matters representing public sector management positions.
- Special regional and state “ Beginnings and Advanced Employee Relations Training Workshops.”